

Unemployment insurance premium

Sole proprietors are not required to pay an unemployment insurance premium for themselves.

If a sole proprietor is an employer, it is required to pay unemployment insurance premiums on payments made to the employees and these are the sole proprietor's business-related expenses.